20 COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, 21 United States Attorney, Karen P. Hewitt, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Rebecca S. Kanter, and hereby 22 files its Response and Opposition to Defendant's Motions to Compel Discovery and File Further 23 Motions. This Response and Opposition is based upon the files and records of this case, together with

I

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On December 5, 2007, at approximately 3:56 p.m., Karla Maricela Palacio Sepulveda ("Defendant") drove a 1996 Pontiac Bonneville to the Calexico West Port of Entry. Defendant applied for entry into the United States and presented Customs and Border Protection Officer A. Felix with a Border Crossing Card. Defendant stated that she owned the vehicle for approximately one year. CBP Officer Felix noticed a smell of soap and marijuana around the area of the glove compartment and referred the vehicle to secondary inspection.

In the vehicle secondary lot, Defendant told CBP Officer C. Estrada that she was driving to Calexico, California to buy shoes and visit her aunt in Heber, California. CBP Officer Estrada noticed shiny packages behind the glove compartment. Officers removed a total of 21 packages wrapped in clear cellophane and carbon paper from the dashboard. Officers also found three cellular phones.

II

DEFENDANT'S MOTIONS TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

The Government has prepared a set of discovery for Defendant which includes the reports from the Customs and Border Protection Officers and Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agent, summaries of the statements made by Defendant, an inventory of Defendant's property, copies of the documents found in her possession and in the vehicle, and photographs of the vehicle and the narcotics. The Government will produce all these materials to Defendant on January 17, 2008.

(1) Defendant's Statements

The Government recognizes its obligation, under Rules 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B), to provide to Defendant the substance of Defendant's oral statements and written statements. (Unless otherwise noted, all references to "Rules" refers to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.) The Government will produce all of the Defendant's statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney at this date. If the Government discovers additional oral or written statements that require disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) or Rule 16(a)(1)(B), such statements will be promptly provided.

(2) Arrest Reports, Notes, and Dispatch Tapes

The Government will provide Defendant with all known reports related to Defendant's arrest

1 in this case. The Government is not aware at this time of the existence of any dispatch tapes relevant
 2 to this case, but will attempt to determine whether any such tapes exist. The Government will continue
 3 to comply with its obligation to provide to Defendant all reports subject to Rule 16(a)(1)(A). The 4 Government has no objection to the preservation of the agents' handwritten notes. See United States
 5 v. Harris, 543 F.2d 1247, 1253 (9th Cir. 1976) (agents must preserve their original notes of interviews
 6 of an accused or prospective government witnesses). However, the Government objects to providing 7 Defendant with a copy of the rough notes at this time. The Government is not required to produce the 8 notes pursuant to the Jencks Act because the notes do not constitute "statements" (as defined 18 U.S.C.
 9 § 3500(e)) unless the notes (1) comprise both a substantially verbatim narrative of a witness' assertion,
 10 and (2) have been approved or adopted by the witness. United States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-07
 11 (9th Cir. 1980). The notes are not Brady material because, as discussed further, the notes do not present
 12 any material exculpatory information or any evidence favorable to Defendant that is material to guilt
 13 or punishment. If, during a future evidentiary hearing, certain rough notes become particularly relevant,
 14 the notes in question will be made available to Defendant.

15 (3) Report of Scientific Tests or Examinations

16 At this time, the only scientific test that the Government is aware of is an analysis of the 17 marijuana by the DEA laboratory. The Government has not yet received the results of that analysis, but 18 will provide Defendant with the results of any scientific tests or examinations in accordance with Rule
 19 16(a)(1)(F)^{1/} when those tests results are received.

20 (4) Brady Material

21 The Government will perform its duty under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) to disclose
 22 material exculpatory information or evidence favorable to Defendant when such evidence is material
 23 to guilt or punishment. The Government recognizes that its obligation under Brady covers not only 24 exculpatory evidence, but also evidence that could be used to impeach witnesses who testify on behalf
 25 of the United States. See Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150, 154 (1972); United States v. Bagley,

27 ^{1/} Defendant requests reports of scientific tests or examination pursuant to Rule 16(D).
 28 Since there is no such subsection in Rule 16, the Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(F).

473 U.S. 667, 676-77 (1985). This obligation also extends to evidence that was not requested by the defense. Bagley, 473 U.S. at 682; United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97, 107-10 (1976). “Evidence is material, and must be disclosed (pursuant to Brady), ‘if there is a reasonable probability that, had the evidence been disclosed to the defense, the result of the proceeding would have been different.’” Carriger v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 479 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc). The final determination of materiality is based on the “suppressed evidence considered collectively, not item by item.” Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 436-37 (1995).

Brady does not, however, mandate that the Government open all of its files for discovery. See United States v. Henke, 222 F.3d 633, 642-44 (9th Cir. 2000) (per curiam). Under Brady, the United States is not required to provide: (1) neutral, irrelevant, speculative, or inculpatory evidence (see United States v. Smith, 282 F.3d 758, 770 (9th Cir. 2002)); (2) evidence available to the defendant from other sources (see United States v. Bracy, 67 F.3d 1421, 1428-29 (9th Cir. 1995)); (3) evidence that the defendant already possesses (see United States v. Mikaelian, 168 F.3d 380-389-90 (9th Cir. 1999) amended by 180 F.3d 1091 (9th Cir. 1999)); or (4) evidence that the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney could not reasonably be imputed to have knowledge or control over. See United States v. Hanson, 262 F.3d 1217, 1234-35 (11th Cir. 2001). Brady does not require the Government “to create exculpatory evidence that does not exist,” United States v. Sukumolahan, 610 F.2d 685, 687 (9th Cir. 1980), but only requires that it “supply a defendant with exculpatory information of which it is aware.” United States v. Flores, 540 F.2d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1976).

(5) Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under the Guidelines

The Government will provide Defendant with all Brady material that may result in mitigation of Defendant’s sentence. Nevertheless, the Government is not required to provide information bearing on Defendant’s sentence until after Defendant’s conviction or guilty plea and prior to her sentencing date. See United States v. Juvenile Male, 864 F.2d 641, 647 (9th Cir. 1988) (no Brady violation occurs “if the evidence is disclosed to the defendant at a time when the disclosure remains in value”).

(6) Defendant’s Prior Record

As far as the Government is aware at this time, Defendant does not have a prior record. The Government will provide Defendant with documentation indicating this lack of a prior criminal record

1 and thereby fulfill its duty of discovery under Rule 16(a)(1)(D).^{2/} See United States v. Audelo-Sanchez,
 2 923 F.2d 129 (9th Cir. 1990). To the extent that the Government determines that there are any 3 additional documents reflecting Defendant's prior criminal record, the Government will provide those 4 to Defendant.

5 (7) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence

6 The Government will disclose in advance of trial the general nature of any "other bad acts"
 7 evidence that the United States intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b). Evidence
 8 should not be treated as "other bad acts" evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) when the evidence 9 concerning the other bad acts and the evidence concerning the crime charged are "inextricably
 10 intertwined." United States v. Soliman, 812 F.2d 277, 279 (9th Cir. 1987).

11 (8) Evidence Seized

12 The Government has prepared and will produce copies of documents seized at the time of 13 Defendant's arrest. The Government will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E)^{3/} in allowing 14 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy all evidence seized 15 that is within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation of 16 Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its case-in-chief at 17 trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant.

18 (9) Request for Preservation of Evidence

19 The Constitution requires the Government to preserve evidence "that might be expected to play 20 a significant role in the suspect's defense." California v. Trombetta, 467 U.S. 479, 488 (1984). To 21 require preservation by the Government, such evidence must (1) "possess an exculpatory value that was 22 apparent before the evidence was destroyed," and (2) "be of such a nature that the defendant would be 23 unable to obtain comparable evidence by other reasonably available means." Id. at 489; see also Cooper
 24

25 ^{2/} Defendant requests evidence of his prior record pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(B). The 26 Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(D), which is the section of the 27 discovery rule pertaining to a defendant's prior record.

28 ^{3/} Defendant requests this discovery pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(C). Because Rule
 16(a)(1)(C) only applies to organizational defendants, the Government interprets this as a request under Rule 16(a)(1)(E).

1 v. Calderon, 255 F.3d 1104, 1113-14 (9th Cir. 2001). The Government has made every effort to 2 preserve evidence it deems to be relevant and material to this case, including sending a letter to the 3 agency in charge on January 16, 2008, requesting the specific preservation of evidence. Any failure to 4 gather and preserve evidence, however, would not violate due process absent bad faith by the 5 Government that results in actual prejudice to the Defendant. See Illinois v. Fisher, 540 U.S. 1174, 124
 6 S.Ct. 1200 (2004) (per curiam); Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51, 57-58 (1988); United States v.
 7 Rivera-Relle, 322 F.3d 670 (9th Cir. 2003); Downs v. Hoyt, 232 F.3d 1031, 1037-38 (9th Cir. 2000).

8 (10) Tangible Objects

9 The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E)^{4/} in allowing 10 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy documents and 11 tangible objects that are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the 12 preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its 13 case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government need not,
 14 however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th 15 Cir. 1984).

16 (11) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie

17 The Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide evidence that could 18 be used to impeach Government witnesses including material information regarding demonstrable bias
 19 or motive to lie. The Government is not aware of any evidence of any bias or motivation to lie on the 20 part of prospective government witnesses. If the Government discovers the existence of information 21 related to a government witness's bias or motive to lie, the information will be provided to the 22 Defendant.

23 (12) Impeachment Evidence

24 As discussed elsewhere, the Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to 25 provide material evidence that could be used to impeach Government witnesses.

27 ^{4/} Defendant makes this request under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(2)(C). Because there is no 28 such subsection in Rule 16, the Government interprets this as a request under Rule 16(a)(1)(E) which applies to the discovery of documents and objects.

1 (13) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness

2 Defendant is not entitled to any evidence that a prospective witness is under criminal
3 investigation by federal, state, or local authorities. The Government is under no obligation to turn over
4 the criminal records or rap sheet of its potential witnesses. United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026
5 (8th Cir. 1976). The Government will, however, provide the conviction record, if any, which could be 6 used to impeach witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-in-chief.

7 (14) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Veracity

8 The Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide material evidence
9 that could be used to impeach Government witnesses including material information related to 10 perception, recollection, ability to communicate, or truth telling. The Government strenuously objects 11 to providing any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has 12 ever been an alcoholic because such information is not discoverable under Rule 16, Brady, Giglio,
13 Henthorn, or any other Constitutional or statutory disclosure provision.

14 (15) Witness Addresses

15 The Government will provide Defendant with the reports containing the names, work addresses,
16 and telephone numbers of the inspectors, officers and special agents who asked questions of Defendant
17 and found the marijuana in the vehicle. In its trial memorandum, the Government will provide 18 Defendant with a list of all witnesses whom it intends to call in its case-in-chief, although delivery of 19 such a witness list is not required. See United States v. Discher, 960 F.2d 870 (9th Cir. 1992); United 20 States v. Mills, 810 F.2d 907, 910 (9th Cir. 1987). The Government strenuously objects to providing 21 the home addresses or the home or personal cellular telephone numbers to Defendant. In non-capital
22 cases, the Government is not even required to disclose the names of its witnesses prior to trial. United 23 States v. Dishner, 974 F.2d 1502, 1522 (9th Cir 1992); (citing United States v. Steel, 759 F.2d 706, 709 24 (9th Cir. 1985)); United States v. Hicks, 103 F.23d 837, 841 (9th Cir. 1996); see also United States v.
25 Bejasa, 904 F.2d 137 (2d Cir. 1990) (holding that United States did not improperly deny defendant 26 access to government witnesses whose telephone numbers and addresses the government refused to 27 provide because defendant knew the identities of the government witnesses and presumably knew their 28 telephone numbers or could have contacted them through the exercise of due diligence).

(16) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant

The Government is not aware of the names of any witnesses favorable to the Defendant's case. If the Government discovers any witnesses favorable to Defendant, the names of such witnesses will be promptly provided.

(17) Statements Relevant to the Defense

The Government will provide all statements relevant to Defendant as required by Rule 16, Brady, and Jencks. The Government is not all possible information and evidence regarding any speculative defense claimed by Defendant. Wood v. Bartholomew, 516 U.S. 1, 6-8 (1995) (per curiam) (holding that inadmissible materials that are not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible exculpatory evidence are not subject to disclosure under Brady).

(18) Jencks Act Material

Rule 26.2 incorporates the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. §3500, into the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Jencks Act requires that, after a Government witness has testified on direct examination, the Government must give the Defendant any "statement" (as defined by the Jencks Act) in the Government's possession that was made by the witness relating to the subject matter to which the witness testified. 18 U.S.C. §3500(b). For purposes of the Jencks Act, a "statement" is (1) a written statement made by the witness and signed or otherwise adopted or approved by her, (2) a substantially verbatim, contemporaneously recorded transcription of the witness's oral statement, or (3) a statement by the witness before a grand jury. 18 U.S.C. §3500(e). If notes are read back to a witness to see whether or not the government agent correctly understood what the witness was saying, that act constitutes "adoption by the witness" for purposes of the Jencks Act. United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101, 1105 (9th Cir. 1991) (citing Goldberg v. United States, 425 U.S. 94, 98 (1976)). There is no applicable Jencks material at this time. If the case proceeds to trial, the Government will produce any materials covered by the Jencks Act relevant to the testifying witness(es).

(19) Giglio Information

An agreement that the Government makes with a witness for testimony in exchange for money or in exchange for favorable treatment in the criminal justice system is generally subject to disclosure as impeachment evidence under Brady and Giglio. See United States v. Kojayan, 8 F.3d 1315, 1322-23

(9th Cir. 1993); Benn v. Lambert, 238 F.3d 1040, 1054-60 (9th Cir. 2002). The Government is not aware of any Giglio information related to this case. If the Government discovers the existence of Giglio information, the information will be provided to the Defendant.

(20) Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest

The Government objects to Defendant's request that the Government reveal all citizen complaints, and internal affair inquiries into the inspectors, officers, and agents who were involved in this case – regardless of whether the complaints or inquiries are baseless or material and regardless of whether the Government intends to call inspectors, officers, and agents to testify. As previously noted, the Government will comply with Henthorn and disclose to Defendant all material incriminating information regarding the testifying inspectors, officers, and special agents

(21) Government Examination of Law Enforcement Personnel Files

The Government will comply with United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991) and request that all federal agencies involved in the criminal investigation and prosecution review the personnel files of the federal law enforcement inspectors, officers, and special agents whom the Government intends to call at trial and disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the appropriate standard of materiality. United States v. Booth, 309 F.3d 566, 574 (9th Cir. 2002) (citing United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488, 1489 (9th Cir. 1992)). If the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney is uncertain whether certain incriminating information in the personnel files is “material,” the information will be submitted to the Court for an in camera inspection and review.

III

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

The Government does not object to the granting of leave to file further motions as long as the further motions are based on newly discovered evidence or discovery provided by the Government subsequent to the instant motion at issue.

IV

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERYA. All Evidence That Defendant Intends To Introduce In Her Case-In-Chief

Since the Government will honor Defendant's request for disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(E), the Government is entitled to reciprocal discovery under Rule 16(b)(1). Pursuant to Rule 16(b)(1), the Government requests that Defendant permit the Government to inspect, copy and photograph any and all books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, or make copies or portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody, or control of Defendant and which Defendant intends to introduce as evidence in her case-in-chief at trial.

The Government further requests that it be permitted to inspect and copy or photograph any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with this case, which are in the possession and control of Defendant, which she intends to introduce as evidence-in-chief at the trial, or which were prepared by a witness whom Defendant intends to call as a witness. The Government also requests that the Court make such order as it deems necessary under Rules 16(d)(1) and (2) to ensure that the Government receives the reciprocal discovery to which it is entitled.

B. Reciprocal Jencks – Statements By Defense Witnesses (Other Than Defendant)

Rule 26.2 provides for the reciprocal production of Jencks material. Rule 26.2 requires production of the prior statements of all witnesses, except a statement made by Defendant. The time frame established by Rule 26.2 requires the statements to be provided to the Government after the witness has testified. However, to expedite trial proceedings, the Government hereby requests that Defendant be ordered to provide all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before trial to be set by the Court. Such an order should include any form in which these statements are memorialized, including but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and reports.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Government requests that the Court deny Defendant's motions, except where unopposed, and grant the Government's motion for reciprocal discovery.
